Purpose and Eligibility Requirements for the CCSDF

The CSU-Pueblo CCSDF is designed to defray child care expenses of students as they pursue their education at CSU-Pueblo. The amount of the award is based on the above information provided at the time of application. As the periodic reviews occur, your eligibility and/or allotment may change. Payments will be made directly to the Child Care Center. To be eligible for an allotment you must be enrolled a minimum of 6 credit hours at the CSU-Pueblo main campus, maintain a GPA of 2.0, and your child must be enrolled a minimum of 12 hours a week.

Allocations do not apply during the weeks that the University is not in session.

Applications must be made EVERY semester.

The information provided is true and accurate.
